

Greg Howe, CCC

Culinary Instructor, Humber College

Greg Howe has over 25 years of experience in the hospitality industry, specializing in large catering events. He graduated from Humber College's Culinary Management program with honors and received Humber College Board of Governors Achievement Award. As a student, he was also a Bronze medalist at the Culinary Federation National Junior Qualifier.

Chef Howe completed his training at Toronto establishments the King Edward Hotel, Scaramouche and CLS Catering. Following that Chef Howe owned a catering company specializing in film and concert catering and was involved in tour catering for musicians including the Rolling Stones, U2, Foo Fighters and Blue Rodeo, to name a few. Howe was also involved in the Men's and Women's Canadian Open Golf Championship while at Compass Group Canada. Currently, Howe is a culinary instructor at Humber College.

Howe earned his certified chef de cuisine accreditation and is currently a certified CCC examiner.