

Stephen Prevedel

First Cook at Crown Plaza Toronto Airport

A Toronto local with extensive experience in creating carvings and showpieces, Stephen Prevedel is a young chef that has been in the kitchen since the age of 15. Currently working as a first cook out of the Crown plaza Toronto airport. Graduate of Humber college and has been in competitions such as the former CRFA show in Toronto. He has won silver in 2014 for the plated competition, and many silver and bronze medals in fruit and vegetable carving showpieces. When he's not in the kitchen he is always looking for new and interesting ways to carve. He loved cooking with his family at home, growing up in an Italian household food was a huge part of his life, if you talk to his parents he has been in the kitchen for as long as he could see over the top of the stove. Looking to become the next member of team Canada he is entering in the senior chef challenge 2019 hoping to be the finalist going through to the next level in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.
